With over 70 years' experience, Perry of Oakley Ltd. can design, manufacture and support dealers for all your materials handling & drying requirements.

We have a team of UK, European, African, Australian, New Zealand, Russian & Ukrainian Engineers and Sales Managers, ensuring we provide high a quality service wherever you are in the world.

All of our equipment is manufactured in the UK to British Standards, using the very latest design & manufacture techniques. Our design work can be done in both 2D & 3D, which ensures you can truly visualise your project, even the early design stage. We also commission all of our equipment, ensuring that installations meet our high standards.
